Preliminary

1. Name of the Company

The name of the company is The Australian Driver Trainers Association (NSW) Limited (the company). The business name is The Australian Driver Trainers Association.

2. Type of Company

The company is a not-for-profit public company limited by guarantee.

3. Company to be referenced as the Association

For the purposes of this constitution, a reference to the company as defined in Clause 1 shall be replaced by the term the Association.

4. Limited liability of members

The liability of members is limited to the amount of the guarantee in clause 4.

5. The guarantee

Each member must contribute an amount not more than $1 (the guarantee) to the property of the Association if the Association is wound up while the member is a member, or within 12 months after they stop being a member, and this contribution is required to pay for the:

- (a) debts and liabilities of the Association incurred before the member stopped being a member, or
- (b) costs of winding up.

6. Definitions

In this constitution, words and phrases have the meaning set out in clauses 71 and 73.

Purposes and powers

7. Objects

- 7.1 To improve the methods of tuition in driver training.
- 7.2 To improve the standard of instruction in driver training.
- 7.3 To advance the interests of persons engaged in driver training.
- 7.4 To actively seek affiliation with other bodies having similar objectives.
- 7.5 To ensure members operate in an ethical and professional manner through adherence to a Professional Code of Practice and compliance with appropriate insurance and other legal requirements.
- 7.6 To improve the standard of instruction in vehicle driving.
- 7.7 To apply the property and resources of the Association in the best possible way to advance the objects of the Association.
- 7.8 To set and review a vision for the Association on a regular basis that will be used to plan ongoing strategic direction for the Association.

8. Powers

Subject to clause 9, the Association has the following powers, which may only be used to carry out its purposes set out in clause 7:

- (a) the powers of an individual, and
- (b) all the powers of a company limited by guarantee under the Corporations Act.

9. Not-for-profit

- 9.1 The income and property of the Association from wherever derived must be applied solely towards promoting the Association as provided in this constitution
- 9.2 The Association must not distribute, pay or transfer to the members directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise any of the property of the Association. However, this does not stop the Association from doing the following things, provided they are done in good faith:
 - (a) paying a member for goods or services they have provided or expenses they have properly incurred at fair and reasonable rates or rates more favourable to the Association, or
 - (b) making a payment to a member in carrying out the Association's purposes.

10. Amending the constitution

The members may amend this constitution by passing a special resolution.

Members

11. Membership and register of members

- 11.1 The members of the Association are any persons that the directors allow to be a member, in accordance with this constitution
- 11.2 The Association must establish and maintain a register of members. The register of members must be kept by the secretary or other such person designated by the Board and must contain:
 - for each current member:
 - i. name
 - ii. address
 - iii. any alternative address nominated by the member for the service of notices, and
 - iv. date the member was entered on to the register.
- 11.3 The Association must give current members access to the register of members.
- 11.4 Information that is accessed from the register of members must only be used in a manner relevant to the interests or rights of members.

12. Membership Categories

At any time, the Board may (subject to the Act) create different categories of membership with different rights, obligations and restrictions. For the purposes of adoption of this constitution, the following categories of membership are recognised but in accordance with this constitution may be varied from time to time by the Board.

12.1 Full Financial Members

- (a) Membership shall be open to all persons who hold a current, relevant State-based accreditation or authority
- (b) Membership shall be open to persons who have a direct interest and who are involved with the actual running of a business in driver or rider training.
- (c) Each Full Financial Member must comply with any requirements set by the Board under Clause 14.4.
- (d) Each Full Financial Member is entitled to one vote at a meeting of the members.

12.2 Associate Financial Members

- (a) Associate membership shall be open to persons who, in the opinion of the Board are able to contribute, benefit or enhance the standing of the Association.
- (b) Each Association Financial Member is entitled to one vote at a meeting of the members.

12.3 Industry Members

- (a) Industry membership shall be open to individuals or companies who have an active interest in the activities of the Association
- (b) Industry Members do not have the right to a vote at meetings of members

12.4 Life Members

- (a) Life membership may be conferred for outstanding service to the Association
- (b) Any financial member may nominate to the Board a member they consider to be worthy of such membership
- (c) The matter of final resolution shall be decided by a majority of members entitled to vote and present at the Annual General Meeting
- (d) Life membership shall be honorary
- (e) Life members who may still be operating as practicing instructors must continue to adhere to the Association requirements for insurance cover and comply with the rules of the Association
- (f) Each Life Members is entitled to one vote at a meeting of members

12.5 In this clause, 'person' means an individual or incorporated body.

13. Fees and Subscriptions

13.1 The membership year is the financial year.

13.2 Membership fees shall be paid in advance of the start of the financial year. Any member who fails to pay their membership fee within 28 days of the due date shall automatically cease to be a member of the Association.

13.3 Entrance or joining fees and any membership fees shall be the sum as shall be determined from time-to-time by the Board of the Association.

- 13.4 Members must renew their membership annually by conforming to any requirements set by the Board, including proof of relevant insurances and licencing. Renewal may be confirmed in a manner as set by the Board including by electronic submission.

14. Application for Membership

A person (as defined in clause 12.5) may apply to become a member of the Association by completing the membership application form (as authorised by the Board), either electronically online or by sending the form to the address noted on the membership application form stating that they:

- (a) want to become a member
- (b) support the purposes of the Association
- (c) agree to abide by the Association's Code of Practice, and
- (d) agree to comply with the Association's constitution, including paying the guarantee under clause 4 if required.

15. Directors decide whether to approve membership

- 15.1 The directors must consider an application for membership within a reasonable time after the application is received under clause 14.
- 15.2 If the directors approve an application, the secretary must as soon as possible:
- (a) enter the new member on the register of members, and
 - (b) write to the applicant to tell them that their application was approved, and the date that their membership started (see clause 16).
- 15.3 If the directors reject an application, the secretary must write to the applicant as soon as possible to tell them that their application has been rejected but does not have to give reasons.
- 15.4 For the avoidance of doubt, the directors may approve an application even if the application does not state the matters listed in clauses 14(a), 14(b), 14(c) or 14(d). In that case, by applying to be a member, the applicant agrees to those four matters.

16. When a person becomes a member

Other than initial members, an applicant will become a member when they are entered on the register of members.

17. When a person stops being a member

A person immediately stops being a member if they:

- (a) die
- (b) are wound up or otherwise dissolved or deregistered (for an incorporated member)
- (c) resign, by writing to the secretary
- (d) by non-payment of the membership fee in accordance with clause 13.2
- (e) by failure to comply with clause 13.4 in relation to insurances and licencing
- (f) are expelled under clause 19, or
- (g) have not responded within 28 days to a written request from the secretary that they confirm in writing that they wish to remain a member and have paid any outstanding membership fees due

Dispute resolution and disciplinary procedures

18. Dispute resolution

- 18.1 The dispute resolution procedure in this clause applies to disputes (disagreements) under this constitution between a member or director and:
- (a) one or more members
 - (b) one or more directors, or
 - (c) the Association.
- 18.2 A member must not start a dispute resolution procedure in relation to a matter which is the subject of a disciplinary procedure under clause 18 until the disciplinary procedure is completed.
- 18.3 Those involved in the dispute must try to resolve it between themselves within 14 days of knowing about it.
- 18.4 If those involved in the dispute do not resolve it under clause 18.3, they must within 10 days:
- (a) tell the directors about the dispute in writing
 - (b) agree or request that a mediator be appointed, and
 - (c) attempt in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation.
- 18.5 The mediator must:
- (a) be chosen by agreement of those involved, or
 - (b) where those involved do not agree:
 - i. for disputes between members, a person chosen by the directors, or
 - ii. for other disputes, a person chosen by the president of the law institute or society in the state or territory in which the Association has its registered office.
- 18.6 A mediator chosen by the directors under clause 18.5(b)(i):
- (a) may be a member or former member of the Association
 - (b) must not have a personal interest in the dispute, and
 - (c) must not be biased towards or against anyone involved in the dispute.
- 18.7 When conducting the mediation, the mediator must:
- (a) allow those involved a reasonable chance to be heard
 - (b) allow those involved a reasonable chance to review any written statements
 - (c) ensure that those involved are given natural justice, and
 - (d) not make a decision on the dispute.

19. Disciplining members

- 19.1 In accordance with this clause, the directors may resolve to warn, suspend or expel a member from the Association if the directors consider that:
- (a) the member has breached this constitution, or
 - (b) the member's behaviour is causing, has caused, or is likely to cause harm to the Association.
- 19.2 At least 14 days before the directors' meeting at which a resolution under clause 19.1 will be considered, the secretary must notify the member in writing:
- (a) that the directors are considering a resolution to warn, suspend or expel the member
 - (b) that this resolution will be considered at a directors' meeting and the date of that meeting
 - (c) what the member is said to have done or not done
 - (d) the nature of the resolution that has been proposed, and
 - (e) that the member may provide an explanation to the directors, and details of how to do so.
- 19.3 Before the directors pass any resolution under clause 19.1, the member must be given a chance to explain or defend themselves by:
- (a) sending the directors a written explanation before that directors' meeting, and/or
 - (b) speaking at the meeting.
- 19.4 After considering any explanation under clause 19.3, the directors may:
- (a) take no further action
 - (b) warn the member
 - (c) suspend the member's rights as a member for a period of no more than 12 months
 - (d) expel the member
 - (e) refer the decision to an unbiased, independent person on conditions that the directors consider appropriate (however, the person can only make a decision that the directors could have made under this clause), or
 - (f) require the matter to be determined at a general meeting.
- 19.5 The directors cannot fine a member.
- 19.6 The secretary must give written notice to the member of the decision under clause 19.4 as soon as possible.
- 19.7 Disciplinary procedures must be completed as soon as reasonably practical.
- 19.8 There will be no liability for any loss or injury suffered by the member as a result of any decision made in good faith under this clause.

General meetings of members

20. General meetings called by directors

- 20.1 The directors may call a general meeting.
- 20.2 If members with at least 10% of the votes that may be cast at a general meeting make a written request to the Association for a general meeting to be held, the directors must:
- (a) within 21 days of the members' request, give all members notice of a general meeting, and
 - (b) hold the general meeting within 2 months of the members' request.
- 20.3 The percentage of votes that members have (in clause 20.2) is to be worked out as at midnight before the members request the meeting.
- 20.4 The members who make the request for a general meeting must:
- (a) state in the request any resolution to be proposed at the meeting
 - (b) sign the request, and
 - (c) give the request to the Association.
- 20.5 Separate copies of a document setting out the request may be signed by members if the wording of the request is the same in each copy.

21. General meetings called by members

- 21.1 If the directors do not call the meeting within 21 days of being requested under clause 20.2, 50% or more of the members who made the request may call and arrange to hold a general meeting.
- 21.2 To call and hold a meeting under clause 21.1 the members must:
- (a) as far as possible, follow the procedures for general meetings set out in this constitution
 - (b) call the meeting using the list of members on the Association's member register, which the Association must provide to the members making the request at no cost, and
 - (c) hold the general meeting within three months after the request was given to the Association.
- 21.3 The Association must pay the members who request the general meeting any reasonable expenses they incur because the directors did not call and hold the meeting.

22. Annual general meeting

- 22.1 A general meeting, called the annual general meeting, must be held at least once in every calendar year and within the period as set by the relevant regulatory body, currently within five months of the financial year-end .
- 22.2 Even if these items are not set out in the notice of meeting, the business of an annual general meeting may include:
- (a) a review of the Association's activities
 - (b) a review of the Association's finances
 - (c) any auditor's report
 - (d) the election of directors

- 22.3 Before or at the annual general meeting, the directors must give information to the members on the Association's activities and finances during the period since the last annual general meeting.
- 22.4 Members must submit any questions they may have in relation to the activities of the Association in writing at least seven days prior to the annual general meeting.

23. Notice of general meetings

- 23.1 Notice of a general meeting must be given to:
- (a) each member entitled to vote at the meeting
 - (b) each director, and
 - (c) the auditor (if any).
- 23.2 Notice of a general meeting must be provided in writing at least 21 days before the meeting.
- 23.3 Subject to clause 23.4, notice of a meeting may be provided less than 21 days before the meeting if:
- (a) for an annual general meeting, all the members entitled to attend and vote at the annual general meeting agree beforehand, or
 - (b) for any other general meeting, members with at least 95% of the votes that may be cast at the meeting agree beforehand.
- 23.4 Notice of a meeting cannot be provided less than 21 days before the meeting if a resolution will be moved to:
- (a) remove a director
 - (b) appoint a director in order to replace a director who was removed, or
 - (c) remove an auditor.
- 23.5 Notice of a general meeting must include:
- (a) the place, date and time for the meeting (and if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this)
 - (b) the general nature of the meeting's business
 - (c) if applicable, that a special resolution is to be proposed and the words of the proposed resolution
 - (d) a statement that members have the right to appoint proxies and that, if a member appoints a proxy:
 - i. the proxy does not need to be a member of the Association
 - ii. the proxy form must be delivered to the Association at its registered address or the address (including an electronic address) specified in the notice of the meeting, and
 - iii. the proxy form must be delivered to the Association at least 48 hours before the meeting.
- 23.6 If a general meeting is adjourned (put off) for one month or more, the members must be given new notice of the resumed meeting.

24. Quorum at general meetings

- 24.1 For a general meeting to be held, at least the lower of twice the sum of the current Board directors plus 1 members or 2% of the members entitled to vote (a quorum) must be present (in person, by proxy or by representative) for the whole meeting. When determining whether a quorum is present, a person may only be counted once (even if that person is a representative or proxy of more than one member).
- 24.2 No business may be conducted at a general meeting if a quorum is not present.

- 24.3 If there is no quorum present within 30 minutes after the starting time stated in the notice of general meeting, the general meeting is adjourned to the date, time and place that the President specifies. If the President does not specify one or more of those things, the meeting is adjourned to:
- (a) if the date is not specified – the same day in the next week
 - (b) if the time is not specified – the same time, and
 - (c) if the place is not specified – the same place.
- 24.4 If no quorum is present at the resumed meeting within 30 minutes after the starting time set for that meeting, the meeting is cancelled.

25. Auditor's right to attend meetings

- 25.1 The auditor (if any) is entitled to attend any general meeting and to be heard by the members on any part of the business of the meeting that concerns the auditor in the capacity of auditor.
- 25.2 The Association must give the auditor (if any) any communications relating to the general meeting that a member of the Association is entitled to receive.

26. Representatives of members

- 26.1 An incorporated member may appoint as a representative:
- (a) one individual to represent the member at meetings and to sign circular resolutions under clause 32, and
 - (b) the same individual or another individual for the purpose of being appointed or elected as a director.
- 26.2 The appointment of a representative by a member must:
- (a) be in writing
 - (b) include the name of the representative
 - (c) be signed on behalf of the member, and
 - (d) be given to the Association or, for representation at a meeting, be given to the President before the meeting starts.
- 26.3 A representative has all the rights of a member relevant to the purposes of the appointment as a representative.
- 26.4 The appointment may be standing (ongoing).

27. Using technology to hold meetings

- 27.1 The Association may hold a general meeting at two or more venues using any technology that gives the members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate, including to hear and be heard.
- 27.2 Anyone using this technology is taken to be present in person at the meeting.

28. President for general meetings

- 28.1 The elected President is entitled to chair general meetings.
- 28.2 The members present and entitled to vote at a general meeting may choose a director or member to be the President for that meeting if:
- (a) there is no elected President, or
 - (b) the elected President is not present within 30 minutes after the starting time set for the meeting, or
 - (c) the elected President is present but says they do not wish to act as President of the meeting.

29. Role of the President

- 29.1 The President is responsible for the conduct of the general meeting, and for this purpose must give members a reasonable opportunity to make comments and ask questions (including to the auditor (if any)).
- 29.2 The President does not have a casting vote.

30. Adjournment of meetings

- 30.1 If a quorum is present, a general meeting must be adjourned if a majority of members present direct the President to adjourn it.
- 30.2 Only unfinished business may be dealt with at a meeting resumed after an adjournment.

Members' resolutions and statements

31. Members' resolutions and statements

- 31.1 Members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on a resolution may give:
- (a) written notice to the Association of a resolution they propose to move at a general meeting (members' resolution), and/or
 - (b) a written request to the Association that the Association give all of its members a statement about a proposed resolution or any other matter that may properly be considered at a general meeting (members' statement).
- 31.2 A notice of a members' resolution must set out the wording of the proposed resolution and be signed by the members proposing the resolution.
- 31.3 A request to distribute a members' statement must set out the statement to be distributed and be signed by the members making the request.
- 31.4 Separate copies of a document setting out the notice or request may be signed by members if the wording is the same in each copy.
- 31.5 The percentage of votes that members have (as described in clause 31.1) is to be worked out as at midnight before the request or notice is given to the Association.
- 31.6 If the Association has been given notice of a members' resolution under clause 30.1(a), the resolution must be considered at the next general meeting held more than two months after the notice is given.
- 31.7 This clause does not limit any other right that a member has to propose a resolution at a general meeting.

32. Association must give notice of proposed resolution or distribute statement

- 32.1 If the Association has been given a notice or request under clause 31:
- (a) in time to send the notice of proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members with a notice of meeting, it must do so at the Association's cost, or
 - (b) too late to send the notice of proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members with a notice of meeting, then the members who proposed the resolution or made the request must pay the expenses reasonably incurred by the Association in giving members notice of the proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement. However, at a general meeting, the members may pass a resolution that the Association will pay these expenses.

- 32.2 The Association does not need to send the notice of proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members if:
- (a) it is more than 1 000 words long
 - (b) the directors consider it may be defamatory
 - (c) clause 32.1(b) applies, and the members who proposed the resolution or made the request have not paid the Association enough money to cover the cost of sending the notice of the proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members, or
 - (d) in the case of a proposed members' resolution, the resolution does not relate to a matter that may be properly considered at a general meeting or is otherwise not a valid resolution able to be put to the members.

33. Circular resolutions of members

- 33.1 Subject to clause 33.3, the directors may put a resolution to the members to pass a resolution without a general meeting being held (a circular resolution).
- 33.2 The directors must notify the auditor (if any) as soon as possible that a circular resolution has or will be put to members, and set out the wording of the resolution.
- 33.3 Circular resolutions cannot be used:
- (a) for a resolution to remove an auditor, appoint a director or remove a director
 - (b) for passing a special resolution, or
 - (c) where the Corporations Act or this constitution requires a meeting to be held.
- 33.4 A circular resolution is passed if all the members entitled to vote on the resolution sign or agree to the circular resolution, in the manner set out in clause 33.5 or clause 33.6.
- 33.5 Members may sign:
- (a) a single document setting out the circular resolution and containing a statement that they agree to the resolution, or
 - (b) separate copies of that document, as long as the wording is the same in each copy.
- 33.6 The Association may send a circular resolution by email to members and members may agree by sending a reply email to that effect, including the text of the resolution in their reply.

Voting at general meetings

34. Challenge to member's right to vote

- 34.1 A member or the President may only challenge a person's right to vote at a general meeting at that meeting.
- 34.2 If a challenge is made under clause 34.1, the President must decide whether or not the person may vote. The President's decision is final.

35. How voting is carried out

- 35.1 Voting must be conducted and decided by:
- (a) a show of hands
 - (b) a vote in writing, or
 - (c) another method chosen by the President that is fair and reasonable in the circumstances.

- 35.2 Before a vote is taken, the President must state whether any proxy votes have been received and, if so, how the proxy votes will be cast.
- 35.3 On a show of hands, the President's decision is conclusive evidence of the result of the vote.
- 35.4 The President and the meeting minutes do not need to state the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against on a show of hands.

36. When and how a vote in writing must be held

- 36.1 A vote in writing may be demanded on any resolution instead of or after a vote by a show of hands by:
 - (a) at least five members present
 - (b) members present with at least 10% of the votes that may be passed on the resolution on the vote in writing (worked out as at the midnight before the vote in writing is demanded), or
 - (c) the President.
- 36.2 A vote in writing must be taken when and how the President directs, unless clause 36.3 applies.
- 36.3 A vote in writing must be held immediately if it is demanded under clause 36.1:
 - (a) for the election of a President under clause 28.2, or
 - (b) to decide whether to adjourn the meeting.
- 36.4 A demand for a vote in writing may be withdrawn.

37. Appointment of proxy

- 37.1 A member may appoint a proxy to attend and vote at a general meeting on their behalf.
- 37.2 A proxy does not need to be a member.
- 37.3 A proxy appointed to attend and vote for a member has the same rights as the member to:
 - (a) speak at the meeting
 - (b) vote in a vote in writing (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment), and
 - (c) join in to demand a vote in writing under clause 36.1.
- 37.4 An appointment of proxy (proxy form) must be signed by the member appointing the proxy and must contain:
 - (a) the member's name and address
 - (b) the Association's name
 - (c) the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy, and
 - (d) the meeting(s) at which the appointment may be used.
- 37.5 A proxy appointment may be standing (ongoing).
- 37.6 Proxy forms must be received by the Association at the address stated in the notice under clause 23.5(d) or at the Association's registered address at least 48 hours before a meeting.
- 37.7 A proxy does not have the authority to speak and vote for a member at a meeting while the member is at the meeting.
- 37.8 Unless the Association receives written notice before the start or resumption of a general meeting at which a proxy votes, a vote cast by the proxy is valid even if, before the proxy votes, the appointing member:
 - (a) dies
 - (b) is mentally incapacitated

- (c) revokes the proxy's appointment, or
- (d) revokes the authority of a representative or agent who appointed the proxy.

37.9 A proxy appointment may specify the way the proxy must vote on a particular resolution.

38. Voting by proxy

- 38.1 A proxy is not entitled to vote on a show of hands (but this does not prevent a member appointed as a proxy from voting as a member on a show of hands).
- 38.2 When a vote in writing is held, a proxy:
- (a) does not need to vote, unless the proxy appointment specifies the way they must vote
 - (b) if the way they must vote is specified on the proxy form, must vote that way, and
 - (c) if the proxy is also a member or holds more than one proxy, may cast the votes held in different ways.

Directors

39. Number of directors

The Association must have at least three and no more than ten directors. At least two directors must ordinarily reside in Australia.

40. Election and appointment of directors

- 40.1 Apart from the directors appointed under clause 40.6, the members may elect up to a maximum of eight directors by a resolution passed in a general meeting.
- 40.2 A person is eligible for election as a director of the Association if they:
- (a) are a financial member of the Association, or a representative of a financial member of the Association (appointed under clause 26)
 - (b) are nominated in writing by two members or representatives of members entitled to vote (unless the person was previously elected as a director at a general meeting and has been a director since that meeting) and lodged with the Secretary at least 21 days before the Annual General Meeting at which the election is to take place
 - (c) give the Association their signed consent to act as a director of the Association, and
 - (d) are not ineligible to be a director under the Corporations Act.
- 40.3 If more than eight nominations for elected directors are received more than 21 days prior to the Annual General Meeting, a ballot of members shall be held where each member present shall be entitled to vote for any number of such candidates not exceeding the number of vacancies. The eight nominees recording the most votes will be elected to the Board.
- 40.4 If fewer than eight nominations for elected directors are received 21 days prior to the Annual General Meeting then those persons nominated will be elected to the Board.
- 40.5 The election of the Board directors shall be subject to the following restriction:

No more than two directors (whether elected or appointed) may be employed by or have an affiliation with any one organisation or brand.

- 40.6 Subject to clause 39, the Board may appoint up to two non-elected Special Directors from time-to-time. These Directors need not be members. A Special Director appointed at a meeting of the Board will be taken to have been appointed on the day of that meeting for a term to be determined by the Board up to a maximum of two years.
- 40.7 The directors may appoint a person as a director to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional director if that person:
- (a) is a member of the Association, or a representative of a member of the Association (appointed under clause 26), unless that person is appointed under clause 40.6
 - (b) gives the Association their signed consent to act as a director of the Association, and
 - (c) is not ineligible to be a director under the Corporations Act or the ACNC Act.
- 40.8 If the number of directors is reduced to fewer than three or is less than the number required for a quorum, the continuing directors may act for the purpose of increasing the number of directors to three (or higher if required for a quorum) or calling a general meeting, but for no other purpose.

41. Election of Officers

The Board will elect from its members, the President, Vice-President and Treasurer at its first ordinary Board meeting following completion of the Annual General Meeting

42. Term of office

- 42.1 At each annual general meeting:
- (a) any director appointed by the directors to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional director must retire, and
 - (b) at least one-half of the elected directors must retire
- 42.2 The directors who must retire at each annual general meeting under clause 42.1(b) will be the directors who have been longest in office since last being elected. Where directors were elected on the same day, the director(s) to retire will be decided by lot unless they agree otherwise.
- 42.3 Other than a director appointed under clause 41.5, a director's term of office starts at the end of the annual general meeting at which they are elected and ends at the end of the annual general meeting at which they retire.
- 42.4 Each elected director must retire at least once every two years.
- 42.5 A director who retires under clause 42.12 may nominate for election or re-election, subject to clause 42.6.
- 42.6 An elected director who has held office for a continuous period of eight years must retire from the Board for a minimum of twelve months before they can be re-elected.

43. When a director stops being a director

A director stops being a director if they:

- (a) give written notice of resignation as a director to the Association
- (b) die
- (c) are an elected director who is removed as a director by a resolution of the members
- (d) stop being a member of the Association
- (e) are a representative of a member, and that member stops being a member
- (f) are a representative of a member, and the member notifies the Association that the representative is no longer a representative
- (g) are absent for three consecutive directors' meetings without approval from the directors, or
- (h) become ineligible to be a director of the Association under the Corporations Act or the ACNC Act.

Powers of directors

44. Powers of directors

- 44.1 The directors are responsible for managing and directing the activities of the Association to achieve the purposes set out in clause 7.
- 44.2 The directors may use all the powers of the Association except for powers that, under the Corporations Act or this constitution, may only be used by members.
- 44.3 The directors must decide on the responsible financial management of the Association including:
 - (a) any suitable written delegations of power under clause 46, and
 - (b) how money will be managed, such as how electronic transfers, negotiable instruments or cheques must be authorised and signed or otherwise approved.
- 44.4 The directors cannot remove an elected director or auditor. Elected directors and auditors may only be removed by a members' resolution at a general meeting.

45. Delegation of directors' powers

- 45.1 The directors may delegate any of their powers and functions to a committee, a director, an employee of the Association (such as a chief executive officer) or any other person, as they consider appropriate.
- 45.2 The delegation must be recorded in the Association's minute book.

46. Payments to directors

- 46.1 The Association must not pay fees to a director for acting as a director.
- 46.2 The Association may:
 - (a) pay a director for work they do for the Association, other than as a director, if the amount is no more than a reasonable fee for the work done, or
 - (b) reimburse a director for expenses properly incurred by the director in connection with the affairs of the Association
 - (c) pay a Managing Director appointed either externally or from within the Board a remuneration which must be approved by the Board. Any payment made must not be for services being provided as a Board Director but must be for services contracted by the Board at an arm's length market rate. Any such pay may consist of salary and / or bonuses.
- 46.3 Any payment made under clause 46.2 must be approved by the directors.

- 46.4 The Association may pay premiums for insurance indemnifying directors, as allowed for by law (including the Corporations Act) and this constitution.

47. Execution of documents

The Association may execute a document without using a common seal if the document is signed by:

- (a) two directors of the Association, or
- (b) a director and the secretary.

Duties of directors

48. Duties of directors

The directors must comply with their duties as directors under legislation and common law (judge-made law), including but not limited to:

- (a) to exercise their powers and discharge their duties with the degree of care and diligence that a reasonable individual would exercise if they were a director of the Association
- (b) to act in good faith in the best interests of the Association and to further the purpose(s) of the Association set out in clause 7
- (c) not to misuse their position as a director
- (d) not to misuse information they gain in their role as a director
- (e) to disclose any perceived or actual material conflicts of interest in the manner set out in clause 9
- (f) to ensure that the financial affairs of the Association are managed responsibly, and
- (g) not to allow the Association to operate while it is insolvent.

49. Conflicts of interest

- 49.1 A director must disclose the nature and extent of any actual or perceived material conflict of interest in a matter that is being considered at a meeting of directors (or that is proposed in a circular resolution):
- (a) to the other directors, or
 - (b) if all of the directors have the same conflict of interest, to the members at the next general meeting, or at an earlier time if reasonable to do so.
- 49.2 The disclosure of a conflict of interest by a director must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- 49.3 Each director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a meeting of directors (or that is proposed in a circular resolution) must not, except as provided under clauses 49.4:
- (a) be present at the meeting while the matter is being discussed, or
 - (b) vote on the matter.
- 49.4 A director may still be present and vote if:
- (a) their interest arises because they are a member of the Association, and the other members have the same interest

- (b) their interest relates to an insurance contract that insures, or would insure, the director against liabilities that the director incurs as a director of the Association (see clause 67)
- (c) their interest relates to a payment by the Association under clause 66 (indemnity), or any contract relating to an indemnity that is allowed under the Corporations Act
- (d) the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) makes an order allowing the director to vote on the matter, or
- (e) the directors who do not have a material personal interest in the matter pass a resolution that:
 - (i) identifies the director, the nature and extent of the director's interest in the matter and how it relates to the affairs of the Association, and
 - (ii) says that those directors are satisfied that the interest should not stop the director from voting or being present.

Directors' meetings

50. When the directors meet

The directors must meet at least four times per annum and can select where and how they meet.

51. Calling directors' meetings

- 51.1 A director may call a directors' meeting by giving reasonable notice to all of the other directors.
- 51.2 A director may give notice in writing or by any other means of communication that has previously been agreed to by all of the directors.

52. President for directors' meetings

- 52.1 The elected President is entitled to chair directors' meetings.
- 52.2 The directors at a directors' meeting may choose a director to be the President for that meeting if the elected President is:
 - (a) not present within 30 minutes after the starting time set for the meeting, or
 - (b) present but does not want to act as President of the meeting.

53. Quorum at directors' meetings

- 53.1 Unless the directors determine otherwise, the quorum for a directors' meeting is a majority (more than 50%) of directors.
- 53.2 A quorum must be present for the whole directors' meeting.

54. Using technology to hold directors' meetings

- 54.1 The directors may hold their meetings by using any technology (such as video or teleconferencing) that is agreed to by all of the directors.
- 54.2 The directors' agreement may be a standing (ongoing) one.
- 54.3 A director may only withdraw their consent within a reasonable period before the meeting. A reasonable time is defined to be not less than 48-hours prior to the commencement of the meeting.

55. Passing directors' resolutions

A directors' resolution must be passed by a majority of the votes cast by directors present and entitled to vote on the resolution.

56. Circular resolutions of directors

- 56.1 The directors may pass a circular resolution without a directors' meeting being held.
- 56.2 A circular resolution is passed if all the directors entitled to vote on the resolution sign or otherwise agree to the resolution in the manner set out in clause 56.3 or clause 56.4.
- 56.3 Each director may sign:
- (a) a single document setting out the resolution and containing a statement that they agree to the resolution, or
 - (b) separate copies of that document, as long as the wording of the resolution is the same in each copy.
- 56.4 The Association may send a circular resolution by email to the directors and the directors may agree to the resolution by sending a reply email to that effect, including the text of the resolution in their reply.
- 56.5 A circular resolution is passed when the last director signs or otherwise agrees to the resolution in the manner set out in clause 56.3 or clause 56.4.

Secretary

57. Appointment and role of secretary

- 57.1 The Association must have at least one secretary, who may also be a director.
- 57.2 A secretary must be appointed by the directors (after giving the Association their signed consent to act as secretary of the Association) and may be removed by the directors.
- 57.3 The directors must decide the terms and conditions under which the secretary is appointed, including any remuneration.
- 57.4 The role of the secretary includes:
- (a) maintaining a register of the Association's members, and
 - (b) maintaining the minutes and other records of general meetings (including notices of meetings), directors' meetings and circular resolutions.

Minutes and records

58. Minutes and records

- 58.1 The Association must, within one month, make and keep the following records:
- (a) minutes of proceedings and resolutions of general meetings
 - (b) minutes of circular resolutions of members
 - (c) a copy of a notice of each general meeting, and
 - (d) a copy of a members' statement distributed to members under clause 32.
- 58.2 The Association must, within one month, make and keep the following records:
- (a) minutes of proceedings and resolutions of directors' meetings (including meetings of any committees), and
 - (b) minutes of circular resolutions of directors.
- 58.3 To allow members to inspect the Association's records:

- (a) the Association must give a member access to the records set out in clause 58.1, and
 - (b) the directors may authorise a member to inspect other records of the Association, including records referred to in clause 58.2 and clause 59.1.
- 58.4 The directors must ensure that minutes of a general meeting or a directors' meeting are signed within a reasonable time after the meeting by:
- (a) the President of the meeting, or
 - (b) the President of the next meeting.
- 58.5 The directors must ensure that minutes of the passing of a circular resolution (of members or directors) are signed by a director within a reasonable time after the resolution is passed.

59. Financial and related records

- 59.1 The Association must make and keep written financial records that:
- (a) correctly record and explain its transactions and financial position and performance, and
 - (b) enable true and fair financial statements to be prepared and to be audited.
- 59.2 The Association must also keep written records that correctly record its operations.
- 59.3 The Association must retain its records for at least 7 years.
- 59.4 The directors must take reasonable steps to ensure that the Association's records are kept safe.

By-laws

60. By-laws

- 60.1 The directors may pass a resolution to make by-laws to give effect to this constitution.
- 60.2 Members and directors must comply with by-laws as if they were part of this constitution.

Notice

61. What is notice

- 61.1 Anything written to or from the Association under any clause in this constitution is written notice and is subject to clauses 62 to 64, unless specified otherwise.
- 61.2 Clauses 62 to 64 do not apply to a notice of proxy under clause 37.6.

62. Notice to the Association

Written notice or any communication under this constitution may be given to the Association, the directors or the secretary by:

- (a) delivering it to the Association's registered office
- (b) posting it to the Association's registered office or to another address chosen by the Association for notice to be provided
- (c) sending it to an email address or other electronic address notified by the Association to the members as the Association's email address or other electronic address, or
- (d) sending it to the fax number notified by the Association to the members as the Association's fax number.

63. Notice to members

- 63.1 Written notice or any communication under this constitution may be given to a member:
- (a) in person
 - (b) by posting it to, or leaving it at the address of the member in the register of members or an alternative address (if any) nominated by the member for service of notices
 - (c) sending it to the email or other electronic address nominated by the member as an alternative address for service of notices (if any)
 - (d) sending it to the fax number nominated by the member as an alternative address for service of notices (if any), or
 - (e) if agreed to by the member, by notifying the member at an email or other electronic address nominated by the member, that the notice is available at a specified place or address (including an electronic address).
- 63.2 If the Association does not have an address for the member, the Association is not required to give notice in person.

64. When notice is taken to be given

A notice:

- (a) delivered in person, or left at the recipient's address, is taken to be given on the day it is delivered
- (b) sent by post, is taken to be given on the third day after it is posted with the correct payment of postage costs
- (c) sent by email, fax or other electronic method, is taken to be given on the business day after it is sent, and
- (d) given under clause 63.1(e) is taken to be given on the business day after the notification that the notice is available is sent.

Financial year

65. Association's financial year

The Association's financial year is from 1 January to 31 December, unless the directors pass a resolution to change the financial year.

Indemnity, insurance and access

66. Indemnity

- 66.1 The Association indemnifies each officer of the Association out of the assets of the Association, to the relevant extent, against all losses and liabilities (including costs, expenses and charges) incurred by that person as an officer of the Association.
- 66.2 In this clause, 'officer' means a director or secretary and includes a director or secretary after they have ceased to hold that office.
- 66.3 In this clause, 'to the relevant extent' means:
- (a) to the extent that the Association is not precluded by law (including the Corporations Act) from doing so, and

- (b) for the amount that the officer is not otherwise entitled to be indemnified and is not actually indemnified by another person (including an insurer under an insurance policy).
- 66.4 The indemnity is a continuing obligation and is enforceable by an officer even though that person is no longer an officer of the Association.

67. Insurance

To the extent permitted by law (including the Corporations Act), and if the directors consider it appropriate, the Association may pay or agree to pay a premium for a contract insuring a person who is or has been an officer of the Association against any liability incurred by the person as an officer of the Association.

68. Directors' access to documents

- 68.1 A director has a right of access to the financial records of the Association at all reasonable times.
- 68.2 If the directors agree and there are reasonable commercial, business or legal purposes, the Association must give a director or former director access to:
- (a) certain documents, including documents provided for or available to the directors, and
 - (b) any other documents referred to in those documents.

Winding up

69. Surplus assets not to be distributed to members

If the Association is wound up, any surplus assets must not be distributed to a member or a former member of the Association, unless that member or former member is a not-for-profit entity described in clause 70.1.

70. Distribution of surplus assets

- 70.1 Subject to the Corporations Act and any other applicable Act, and any court order, any surplus assets that remain after the Association is wound up must be distributed to one or more not-for-profit entities:
- (a) with purpose(s) similar to, or inclusive of, the purpose(s) in clause 7, and
 - (b) which also prohibit the distribution of any surplus assets to its members to at least the same extent as the Association.
- 70.2 The decision as to the entity or entities to be given the surplus assets must be made by a special resolution of members at or before the time of winding up. If the members do not make this decision, the Association may apply to the Supreme Court to make this decision.

Definitions and interpretation

71. Definitions

In this constitution:

Corporations Act means the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)

elected President means a person elected by the directors to be the Association's President under clause 41 general meeting means a meeting of members and includes the annual general meeting, under clause 22.1

initial member means a person who is named in the application for registration of the Association, with their consent, as a proposed member of the Association member present means, in connection with a general meeting, a member present in person, by representative or by proxy at the venue or venues for the meeting special resolution means a resolution:

- i. of which notice has been given under clause 23.5(c), and
- ii. that has been passed by at least 75% of the votes cast by members present and entitled to vote on the resolution, and surplus assets means any assets of the Association that remain after paying all debts and other liabilities of the Association, including the costs of winding up.

72. Reading this constitution with the Corporations Act

- 72.1 The replaceable rules set out in the Corporations Act do not apply to the Association.
- 72.2 The Corporations Act overrides any clauses in this constitution which are inconsistent with the Act.
- 72.3 A word or expression that is defined in the Corporations Act, or used in that Act and covering the same subject, has the same meaning as in this constitution.

73. Interpretation

In this constitution:

- (a) the words ‘including’, ‘for example’, or similar expressions mean that there may be more inclusions or examples than those mentioned after that expression, and
- (b) reference to an Act includes every amendment, re-enactment, or replacement of that Act and any subordinate legislation made under that Act (such as regulations).
